ABOUT PEOPLE AT THE CHAIN O' LAKES.

Waupaca, Wis., Aug. 28.-Society was at its best the preceding week, and although to near the end of the season, it was the gayest week in the annals of the year. The guests are commencing to depart, but these who have not yet gone were fully repaid and Roy F. Britton of St. Louis, at the Veterans' Home Amusement Hall on Tuesand Roy F. Britton of St. Louis, at the Veterans' Home Amusement Hall on Tuesday evening. The popularity of these talented young men was shown by the fact of the crowded house which greeted them at the rise of the curtain. Over 20 people crowded the hall to the doors. Besides the sketch, "The Littlest Girl," A dramatization by Richard Heillard, and an original sketch, "A Robbery in the Night," the programme was composed of music selections and monolegues by hotel talent. The hit of the evening was made by Elsie Waidron, a niece of the Brittons, who took the part of the "Littlest Girl." She is only 5 years old, but played with an understanding which would be a credit to an older person. She was the recipient of many flowers at the close of the act. The entire troupe was entertained at a supper at the Grand View Hotel after the evening's performance, and a joiller crowd never assembled in the dining hall.

The dance on Saturday evening was made a special occasion by the hotel management. It was probably the largest dance of the senson, and the dance music was given by an orchestra of nine mea. The large amusement hall was filled with dancers, who came from all parts of the lakes and from Waupaca also. The dancing floor has the reputation of being one of the best in the Batte, and the semiweekly "hops" this year have afforded much pleasure to the resorters.

in the Buste, and the semiweekly adopt this year have afforded much piensure to the reserters.

Last Friday night the Grand View Hotel management tendered the guests a cinch party. The amusement hall was still decorated from the dance, and was quite festive in appearance. The prizes were won by Mr. C. E. Curby of St. Louis and Miss Josephine Wieterick.

The sensation of the Lakes was the recordbreaking swim this week of Miss Irene Rahte, who is only it years old. She started from her cottage, on Point Comfort, and swam to the Veterans' Home dock, a distance of nearly one mile. She felt strong at the finish and could have kept on.

Miss Estelle Misen Bluthardt of St. Louis was the hostess of the most enjoyable marshmallow reast ever given on the Lakes on Monday evening. The party was given in honor of Miss Bluthardt's friend, Miss habel Clausenius, who is visiting her and will remain to the close of the season. Music was turnished by a string orchestra, and retreahments were served throughout the vening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griesedieck of St.

reahments were served into the vening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griesedieck of St. Louis, who have been visiting C. E. Curby of the same city, left here the early part of the week with their son. Alvin.

This week has also seen the departure of J. H. Kuhl and family of Peoria, ill. They were very good friends of F. H. Britton of St. Louis, who left here Wednesday with Mrs. Neille Durham.

JAMESTOWN.

PETOSKEY.

Petoskey, Mich., Aug. 23.—Petcskey is the first to feel the tide of summer travel northward, and the last to recognize the fact that the season is waning. Social pleasures here are still at full tide and many new-comers are registered daily.

Thursday occurred the annual outing of the Jim Lewis Fishing Club, presided over by that prince of fishermen, John F. Storm of St. Louis. The banquet in the evening, which was sum; tuously sumptuous, was served at the Imperial. In their desire to keep the "doings" as profoundly secret as possible they invited to the festive board all the representatives of the press, focal and eojourning, with a view to filling them up too full for utterance. Jim Lewis of the Imperial has been elected perpetual grand panjandrum and everlasting steward of the club.

The proceeds, which were large, are to be divided among the three churches here. Mrs. A. B. Lambert led the minuet, which was the opening dance. Mrs. Lambert was gowned in blue chiffon with sliver embroidery.

The children's ball last week was an affair of great interest to all ages and was particularly brilliant. Masters "Don" and Albert Lambert were among the most noticeably well costumed children present, the former as a Prince and the latter as Puck. These unusually handsome children are great pets here, and on this occasion received great applause as they appeared in the grand march.

Mrs. Lambert entertained at a large card party on Wednesday morning, Mrs. McGrew assisting in receiving the guests. The prizes, which were very handsome and well selected, were won by Miss Jones of Richmond, Mrs. Welter Silson Hutchins of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Robert Bell of Louisville.

Mrs. Robert Sturgeon of St. Louis has returned here after a visit to the Hot Springs.

The season at the local resorts is now about over, and with the close of the present week a majority of the summer residents at Highland Park and of the watering places of Spring Lake will have left for their homes. The season has been a very pleasant one despite the fact that the weather conditions were not always of the best. Nearly all the summer visitors to this locality own their cottages and summer residents and most of them continue to come year after year. The regular St. Louis colony here is a very large one.

Many changes and improvements are contemplated at the local summer resorts before the opening of another season, and mext year's visitors will see conditions greatly improved, despite the fact that they are well nigh perfect even now. A large new hotel is projected on the beach at Highland Park, and the promotors are now at work interesting capital. It is proposed to make it the second largest beach hotel on the shores of Lake Michigan. Then, too, the Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Muskegon Electric Railway has plans drawn for a large new pavillon on the lake suitable to accommodate 2,000 people, with a continuous vaudeville performance the season through. accommodate 3.00 people, with a continuous vaudeville performance the season through. sar.eMn rdl wiw gkinfw gkngkqjoinfffffmn Nalied to a big entrance tree on the very narrow road that leads to Sagamore Hill, the President's hofe at Oyster Bay, is a big signboard bearing the words in olg black letters, "Automobiling Prohibited." At certain points on this road carriages and automobiles cannot pass. In other places the road has been badly cut out by vehicles, and the superintendent found it necessary to post the sign.

The drive through the grove is a most delightful one, and strangers to the village take advantage of it. Carriages are constantly pussing and repassing. Secret service men have little time for napping. The winding road terminates in a sharp curve at the brow of the hill, just before the President's house bursts into view, and it is at this point that automobiles are likely to cause no end of trogble.
